Electronic Form Submission

Final Rules 12-17-2008

eForms Highlights:

- It is not required to use the system; paper documents will still be accepted
- Multiple users are able to fill out same form before submission
- Form will be validated for errors before submission
- Faster entry into COGCC processing system
- Industry and the public will be able to track progress of regulatory forms from submission through approval

New System Login

Each user will have their own login name, password, and operator number. You will only be allowed to see forms for your operator number.

🛃 Internet

Finding the right form is made easier as the system has a number of different way to search for forms.

- Date range
- Status of the form (select the status from the drop down list)
- Document number
- Form number, i.e. Form 2

The user will select a new application or one from the list displayed. The regulatory forms will be displayed in a tab format for data enrty. As the user moves from tab to tab, certain fields will be validated for accuracy.
